*CALL TO WORSHIP

Lynnea Lyman, Worship Assistant

One: Come, beloved of God, and pause in the place of liminal longing.

Many: We come betwixt and between, pulled in many directions.

One: Trust that the Holy One is already forming a new creation in you.

Many: We come trusting God's mercy to center and change us.

One: Indeed, the Holy One calls you by name for deeds of mercy.

Many: May God's ancient action be a present presence as we gather.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Worship Assistant

All: Loving God, form in me a space for healing and enter in anew. For too long I have clutched the past in ways that have prevented the possibility of moving forward. Boundaries of my own making have kept me resistant to your healing mercy. Definitions of the world's making have created divisions preventing the possibility of a new day, a new season, a new life. By Your mercy form me for a life of mercy and thanks. Lift every burden and release me from every long-rehearsed story holding me hostage to any narrative of hopelessness, hurt and fear. Grant instead a lightness of spirit forgiving me and freeing me to leap into a dance of delight beyond my wildest imagination.

ASSURANCE OF GOD'S FORGIVENESS

Hear the good news! Into our little openings of trust, God is pouring a large love born of mercy. No burden of your past is stronger than this power of Love to forgive, heal, and bless. In the name of Jesus Christ, we are forgiven. Now may our lives become songs of thanksgiving and praise that others too may discover the amazing power of God to make all things new! Amen.
