PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Great Giver of gifts, how grateful we are for the work of your Spirit in our lives. While we may think we know what you are calling us to do, if we are honest, we still have some questions. If we are honest, we are a little unsure of our next steps. If we are honest, we are sometimes afraid of the big tasks that lay before us. Lord, you have said that if anyone lacks wisdom that we should come to you. Lord, use us for your glory and for the common good. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

COMMUNAL PRAYER

We all have reasons why we don't do the things we say we want to. Our minds and hearts know the person we want to be and the life we want to live, but it seems difficult sometimes to put that knowledge into practice. Nevertheless, the answer is to just do it. If we want to see a change, there is no substitute for action. In case we are tempted to think this is a modern problem, consider these words from the Talmud: Do not be daunted by the enormity of the world's grief. Do justly, now. Love mercy, now. Walk humbly, now. You are not obligated to complete the work, but neither are you free to abandon it. Help us to remember this. Amen.
